THE TIMOR COLLECTION
DARWIN

LIST OF HOLDINGS
(as of 30 June 1982)

Darwin
Kevin Sherlock
1982

INTRODUCTION

The Timor Collection is being formed with the hope that it will eventually provide, in the nearest Australian urban centre to that island, a comprehensive collection of material relating to Timor which could be of use to the Timorese people and to others with an interest in Timor.

The Timor Collection is, for the present, the private property of Kevin Sherlock, 6 Lampe Street, Fannie Bay, Darwin, Northern Territory, 5790, Australia, but it is intended that the collection will, within the next few years, be lodged as a unit within the Northern Territory Library Service where the public will have access to it. Most of the works in the collection have been purchased personally by Kevin Sherlock, but many of them have been donated by various individuals and institutions.

This "List of Holdings" is intended purely as a record and not as a guide. It is a single alphabetical list by author or, where the author is not known, by title.

Names of authors are given in the fullest forms of their names known to me, and cross-references made in cases where necessary, e.g., José Grácio Ribeiro issued one work under the name "Grácio Ribeiro" and another under the name "Grácio"; there is a cross-reference from "Grácio". Where the name of an author on each of his several works is in a shorter form, uses varying orthography, or is occasionally given in full, this has been indicated in the following manner:

CORREIA, Armando Eduardo Pinto.
  CORREIA, Armando Pinto.
  — Relatório de uma viagem a Kissar.

——— Notas de etnografia timorense.

  CORRÊA, Armando Pinto.
  — Gentio de Timor.

  CORREIA, A. Pinto.
  — Timor de lés a lés.

The longer, unindented dash against the second item indicates that the full name was used for "Notas de etnografia timorense". The shorter, indented dash indicates that the form of name used was that on the immediately preceding line, or, in the absence of a name on the immediately preceding line, that used for the immediately preceding item using an indented dash.

English translations of non-English titles have, in most cases, been added. An asterisk (*) indicates that a photocopy only is held.

A few of the items contain only one or two references to Timor and in one instance none at all, but these have been included as general background material on Asia, colonization and events in the colonizing nations, e.g. Boxer's Race Relations in the Portuguese Colonial Empire 1415-1825, Grant's Indonesia, Figueiredo's Portugal: Fifty Years of Dictatorship, Fitzgerald's A Concise History of East Asia.

This list excludes maps, posters, photographs and most newspaper articles in their original form, but it is intended to include them in the supplement listing works added to the collection between July 1st and December 31st 1982.

Permission is unconditionally granted to make copies of this list.
